-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group I, claims 1-3 in the reply filed on 02/27/06 is acknowledged.

Priority

2. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claims 1 and 2, "predetermined value" is indefinite term. In claim 1, "desired" is indefinite term. In claim 1, "second predetermined time period" and in claim 2, "third predetermined time period" are indefinite and confusing.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Whipple, III et al. (5,330,580) or Elick et al. (US 2004/0173245).

Whipple et al. disclose a dishwasher includes a sensor for detecting power consumption surges. See the abstract. The reference discloses the amount of liquid provided to the machine is controlled in accordance with the detected power consumption surges. See col. 7, lines 12-16, 24-30, col. 4, lines 59-66, col. 6, line 2- col. 7, line 30, and claim 10.

Elick et al. disclose a dishwasher operates to sense the need for a drain or purge operation based on dynamic characteristics of a respective washing operation. See the abstract. The reference discloses the motor current can be used to signal the need to stop pump motor, start drain pump, control water value and restart pump motor. See paragraph 54, and claims 6, 8, 16, 20 - 21.

Whipple et al. and Elick et al. do not teach the steps as claimed.

It would have been obvious for one skilled in the art to use the method of controlling the dishwasher taught by Whipple et al. or Elick et al. to obtain the claimed invention, because the process as claimed is inherent in the Whipple et al. or Elick et al. control system.
